Attention to every detail is what sets us apart

Whether you have the time to work with us to build your dream home or you're looking for something ready to move into, D&D Custom Homes is ready to meet your needs.

Check our website for information on available houses we currently have under construction. Often we have new homes in different phases offering opportunities to make some of the final detail decisions.

Visit our website for testimonials, area information and photo galleries showcasing some of our interior and exterior work.

*Building Each Home
As Our Own*

Let D&D Custom Homes work with you to design and build a home that you'll enjoy year after year.

We'll meet with you at your convenience and show you why D&D Custom Homes is the choice for so many in Wilson County.
